Design

Looking to design or redesign your office space? Our office design and space planning consultancy service has got you covered.

Our process begins with a site visit by one of our experienced designers, who will consider any architect drawings of the space and work closely with you and other stakeholders to ensure all requirements are considered and included in the final plan. We provide 3D renders that range from simple visualizations to detailed drawings, allowing you to see how the finished office will look and make changes as necessary.

Our ergonomic evaluation includes an assessment of your current usage and a review of your needs, with a recommendation outlining the best fit solution. We audit your current storage usage, investigate your needs, and recommend solutions to make the best use of your available space. Finally, our reverberation testing helps to minimize noise levels in the space, creating an environment that promotes productivity and well-being.

Let our experienced designers help you create an office space that not only meets your needs but exceeds your expectations. Contact us today to learn more about how we can help elevate your office design and space planning to the next level
